

Teach English in Florence

COURSE FORMAT

This course is a 130 hour, 4 week TEFL certification. It's intensive and includes many teaching practises and planning sessions. You'll be studying from 8.30am to 4.00pm Monday to Friday.

TEACHING PRACTICES

You'll have at least 10 hours of teaching practicals throughout the course. Each day you'll also be lesson planning and studying new teaching methods.

TYPE OF ASSESSMENT

You'll be assessed continually throughout the 4 weeks training with observations from your trainers and peers.

COURSE LOCATION AND CENTRE

The training centre is located just off the Piazza della Repubblica, right in the heart of the historical centre of Florence.

REQUIREMENTS

The age requirement is generally 18 to 65 years old, however we welcome all applications on a case by case basis. Most candidates are 21+ years old, with a college degree.

JOB MARKET AND EMPLOYMENT POSSIBILITY

There's a good demand for TEFL teachers in Italy. Outside of the country, our team work with you to find jobs where you'd like to work – in any corner of the world! You're fully assisted in securing your job after training.

VISA REQUIREMENTS

EU passport holders can live and work in Italy without restrictions. For Non-EU passport holders, you will need a visa to live, study and work in Italy for longer than 3 months. We can arrange this with you when you arrive in Italy if needed.

WORK IN FLORENCE

In Italy, there are a range of TEFL teaching opportunities; from language centres to summer camps, private tuition to schools. You'll usually teach your students 20 hours per week, with time outside this for lesson planning, grading papers and so on.

Since there are jobs year round, there's no peak hiring time! Contracts in schools and language centres are usually 6 months long.

You can expect to earn €1200 – €1500 Euro per month depending on job type and hours worked.

The job assistance from the team in Florence is worldwide, so you can teach anywhere on completion of the course!

Florence is a fantastic city, nestled in the north of Italy, it's the capital of the Tuscany region. Neighbouring Pisa, Bologna and Chianti's vineyards, it's a fantastic place to live and work as a TEFL teacher!

It's full to bursting with romance, architecture, museums, incredible food and markets galore! It's the Renaissance capital of Europe, famously hosting Michelangelo's 'David'. If you're into art, you'll have a new gallery to visit every weekend. If your thing is more restaurants and bars, Florence has it all. Pizzerias, trattorias, cafes and gelaterias on every corner. A foodies paradise.

The most incredible sights include Duomo – Cattedrale di Santa Maria del Fiore, if you haven't heard of it, it can only be described as the most iconic site in Florence. A gold covered masterpiece. The Uffizi gallery – Italy's most visited museum – holds some of the most breathtaking pieces on the planet.
