

Teach English in Toulouse

COURSE FORMAT

This course is a 120-hour, 4-week TEFL certification. It's intensive and includes many teaching practices and planning sessions. You'll be studying from 9.00am to 6.30pm Monday to Friday. It's a well planned course with breaks and less homework than other programs.

TEACHING PRACTICES

You'll have at least 10 hours of teaching practicals throughout the course. Each day you'll also be lesson planning and studying new teaching methods.

TYPE OF ASSESSMENT

You'll be assessed continually throughout the 4 weeks training with observations from your trainers and peers.

COURSE LOCATION AND CENTRE

The training centre is in the centre of Toulouse, on Allee Federic Mistral. It's so central and in a lovely area of the city.

REQUIREMENTS

To complete the TEFL course you need to be at least 18 years old (although each applicant is considered on a case by case basis). You can also be a non-native speaker of English as long as you have a level C1 or above, which will be tested during the interview. A Bachelors degree (in any discipline) is preferred, however there are plenty of TEFL jobs for non degree holders.

JOB MARKET AND EMPLOYMENT POSSIBILITY

There's a good demand for TEFL teachers in France, in Toulouse and many other cities. Outside of the country, our team work with you to find jobs where you'd like to work – in any corner of the world! You're fully assisted in securing your job after training.

VISA REQUIREMENTS

EU passport holders can live and work in France without restrictions. Canadians, Australians and New Zealanders can get a "working holiday visa" for France, so they can do the course and then teach English here. For all other Non-EU passport holders, you will need a visa to live, study and work in France for longer than 3 months. We can arrange this with you when you arrive in France if needed with our partner language school. You'll need a study course of 6 months or more of French language usually. This will allow you to live and work in France for longer than 90 days.

WORK IN TOULOUSE

France boasts a wealth of teaching roles! You'll usually teach in towns or cities, at language schools or summer camps. TEFL teachers usually have a teaching schedule of 20-25 hours per week, with your down time needed for lesson planning, grading etc. You can also take advantage of offering private one to one tutoring, you'll boost your income significantly!

Hiring is year round so there's nothing stopping you leaving as soon as you're ready.

You can expect to earn €1200 – €2000 Euro per month depending on job type and hours worked. Most people register as an 'auto-entrepreneur' in France, meaning you can work for multiple language centres and privately, to build up your full time schedule.

Language centre positions pay between €18-€30 Euro per hour, and private teaching €30 + per hour. There's the opportunity to earn very nicely in France!

The job assistance from the team in Toulouse is lifelong, so you're in good hands for as long as you're teaching abroad!

Toulouse is nestled in the south west of France, a couple of hours from each coast. You can get to the west coast of Biarritz for fabulous beaches, Bordeaux for the fantastic wine, or Albi – an up and coming city resonant of Toulouse!

There's a large student population – making up around a fifth of the overall inhabitants! Meaning there's a young vibe and dynamic buzz to the city. It's been famed as the number 1 city to study in, in all of France.

Toulouse is known as 'La Ville Rose' – called so because of the red brick build architecture, which has a warm glow at sunset. A sight to behold.

There are a wealth of cafes, patisseries, restaurants, parks, the old historic town centre and the lively main square – more than enough to keep you occupied for weekends on end! When you fancy a trip out of the city, transportation is plentiful and cheap. You can walk everywhere within the city, or hire a bike for a faster trip!

Toulouse is a fantastic city, with gorgeous weather and culture. You'll not be disappointed and will certainly remember your time spent in this amazing place.
